DIA Presents Wintertainment this Holiday Season

DENVER — Dec. 9, 2013 —Denver International Airport (DIA) is proud to present seasonal live “Wintertainment” in Jeppesen Terminal, featuring carolers and instrumental holiday music Dec. 14-24, and world music Dec. 26-30.

“We are again partnering with Denver Arts & Venues and the Denver Theatre District to provide live performances of classic holiday favorites and world seasonal music in the Jeppesen Terminal,” said Manager of Aviation Kim Day. “We hope this will enhance the holiday travel experience for our passengers and those picking up friends and loved ones.”

Dates: Dec. 14-24 and Dec. 26-30

Times: 10 a.m. – 6 p.m. each day

Location: Jeppesen Terminal Level 5

Producers: Denver Arts & Venues/Denver Theatre District

On Dec. 14-24, nearly two dozen local Colorado musicians will perform traditional holiday music in Jeppesen Terminal. A Yamaha C7 Baby Grand piano (donated by Woods and Son Piano Co.) will be the centerpiece of the stage on level 5 of Jeppesen Terminal where musicians such as Joshua Davis, M.Florea, and Chris Heckman will perform classic holiday piano standards. Original Dickens Carolers will serenade travelers throughout Jeppesen Terminal, and each day travelers will be able to see a mix of local up-and-coming, student, and established musicians, from the jazz trumpet of Joshua Trinidad to holiday bluegrass of Nick Amodeo and Friends.

On Dec. 26-30, the stage in the Great Hall will host world music. DIA will be celebrating the music of Latin America, Germany, Japan, England, the Middle East, the Caribbean and many others regions of the world.

Denver International Airport is the 13th-busiest airport in the world and the fifth-busiest airport in the United States. With more than 50 million passengers traveling through the airport each year, DIA is one of the busiest airline hubs in the world’s largest aviation market. DIA is the primary economic engine for the state of Colorado, generating more than $26 billion for the region annually.
